

Corrections to Franciscan Hand-Decorated Embossed Dinnerware

Gladding, McBean's Glendale Plant was not in Glendale, California. The Glendale Plant was in Los Angeles, California. Gladding, McBean & Co. had a manufacturing plant in Los Angeles prior to acquiring the property of the former Tropico potteries which became the Glendale plant.

Page 21 and Page 132

California Poppy was designed by Annette Honeywell, the designer of Desert Rose, not Mary Jane Winans. Mary Jane sculpted and adapted the design for the shapes of California Poppy.

Page 28

Second paragraph: Contours was introduced in 1955, not 1959. Contours: 1955-1956.

Page 30

Elsa Rady's name is misspelled, and the location of her pottery was in Venice, California, not Venice, Italy. The sentence "Elsa Radie as a trainee designer, who built her own pottery in Venice, Italy." should be corrected to read: "Elsa Rady as a trainee designer, who built her own pottery in Venice, California."

Pages 67-68

The date for discontinuation of the Apple Salt & Pepper Mill should be 1979, not 1980.

The following Apple shapes were not introduced in 1956. The Franciscan Ceramics Archive does not have a 1952 price list. Some shapes will therefore be dated 1952-1953. The correct date of introduction are as follows.

	Introduced
Bowl - Mixing Large	1952-1953
Bowl - Mixing Medium	1952-1953
Bowl - Mixing Small	1952-1953
Bowl - Vegetable - Bowl Divided	1952-1953
Coaster	1952-1953
Compote - Large	1952-1953
Cup - Egg	1952-1953
Cup/Mug - 12 oz Mug - His Mug	1954
Pitcher - Milk - 1 quart	1952-1953
Plate - Grill or Buffet	1952-1953
Plate - Side Salad	1954
Plate - T.V. with Cup Well	1954
Relish Dish - Three compartments	1952-1953
Tureen - Footed - Small	1952-1953

Page 70

The Apple Tureen, pedestal base would have been introduced in 1980.

Corrections to Franciscan Hand-Decorated Embossed Dinnerware

Page 86-88

The date for the Desert Rose Salt & Pepper Shaker/Mill, Bulbous base set was discontinued in 1979. The correct dates for the Desert Rose Salt & Pepper Shaker/Mill, Bulbous base is 1971-1979.

The following Desert Rose shapes were not introduced in 1956. The Franciscan Ceramics Archive does not have a 1952 price list. Some shapes will therefore be dated 1952-1953. The correct date of introduction are as follows.

	Introduced
Bowl - Mixing Large	1952-1953
Bowl - Mixing Medium	1952-1953
Bowl - Mixing Small	1952-1953
Bowl - Vegetable - Bowl Divided	1952-1953
Compote - Large	1952-1953
Cup/Mug - 12 oz Mug - His Mug	1954
Pitcher - Milk - 1 quart	1952-1953
Plate - Grill or Buffet	1952-1953
Plate - Side Salad	1954
Plate - T.V. with Cup Well	1954
Relish Dish - Three Compartments	1954
Cookie Jar	1952-1953

Page 112

Manufacturing Wild Flower was discontinued for the duration in January 1943. You could order Wild Flower, but only for stock on hand. Another glaze finish was available for Wild Flower – Satin Matt in 1943, in addition to the Bright Gloss glaze finish. (Wild Flower in the January 1943 Franciscan Ware Price List) Wild Flower was not manufactured after 1942. The salt & pepper were added after July 1942 and prior to September 1942. Wild Flower was designed by Annette Honeywell, the designer of Desert Rose.

